OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY The Presider says

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE WLP 787 “We are marching in the light of God” (Siyahamba)

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

O Lord, you have taught us that without love whatever we do is worth nothing: Send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts your greatest gift, which is love, the true bond of peace and of all virtue, without which whoever lives is accounted dead before you. Grant this for the sake of your only Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

GENESIS 45: 3-11, 15

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence.

Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come closer to me." And they came closer. He said, "I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt. Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there--since there are five more years of famine to come--so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty.'"

And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him

PSALM

Let us read together from Psalm 37.

- 1 Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; *
do not be jealous of those who do wrong.
- 2 For they shall soon wither like the grass, *
and like the green grass fade away.
- 3 Put your trust in God and do good; *
dwell in the land and feed on its riches.
- 4 Take delight in God, *
who shall give you your heart's desire.
- 5 Commit your way to God and put your trust in God, *
who will bring it to pass.
- 6 God will make your righteousness as clear as the light * and your just dealing as the noonday.
- 7 Be still before God; *
for God wait patiently.
- 8 Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
the one who succeeds in evil schemes.
- 9 Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
do not fret yourself, it leads only to evil.

- 10 For evildoers shall be cut off, *
but those who wait upon God shall possess the land.
- 11 In a little while the wicked shall be no more; *
you shall search out their place, but they will not be there.
- 12 But the lowly shall possess the land; *
they will delight in abundance of peace.
- 41 But the deliverance of the righteous comes from God * who is their stronghold in time of trouble.
- 42 God will help them and rescue them; *
the Holy One will rescue them from the wicked and deliver them, because they seek refuge in God.

SECOND READING

1 CORINTHIANS 15:35-38, 42-50-20

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?" Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven.

What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE HYMN “Celtic Alleluia” Fintan O’Carroll

Please repeat after the Cantor.

Cantor Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

LUKE 6:27-38

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

"If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

"Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

Silence is kept after the sermon.

THE CREED

Deacon and People

We believe in one God,

 the Father, the Almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
 the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation

 he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.

 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father,
 who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Deacon Let us pray for the church and the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. We pray for all bishops, deacons, and priests, especially as they continue to pivot and adapt, finding new ways to lead worship and care for the people they serve.

(We pause, making space for prayer.)

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Deacon Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We pray that those with the authority to make decisions that affect the wellbeing of others will be guided by wisdom, compassion, humility, and commonsense.

(We pause, making space for prayer.)

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Deacon Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. We pray that even as we continue to endure this time of pandemic, we will also heed and respond to the climate crisis.

(We pause, making space for prayer.)

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Deacon We pray in thanksgiving for family, friends, and neighbors, especially those who are reaching out to stay connected at those times when we can't be together in person. We remember those small joys and real delights that are available to us. Help us to maintain a spirit of gratitude, courage and hope.

(We pause, making space for prayer.)

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Deacon Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; we pray especially for those who are most vulnerable to infection and those most challenged by social isolation, whether because of health issues, anxiety, or loss of income. May we all be especially generous and kind during these times. We remember especially those on our parish prayer list.

(We pause, making space for prayer.)

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Deacon We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

(We pause, making space for prayer.)

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Presider

Lord, open our eyes to your presence, open our ears to your call, open our hearts to your love; that we may give ourselves to you and walk before you as children of light; through him who is the Light of the World, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Presider and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

We greet one another in the name of the Lord.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

"Where True Charity and Love Dwell"

Kaye Saunders

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Presider continues

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

SANCTUS

Presider and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Then the Presider continues

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Presider continues

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray, (first in Spanish and then in English,)

People and Presider

Padre nuestro que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu Nombre,
venga tu reino,
hágase tu voluntad,
en la tierra como en el cielo.

Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.

Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden.

No nos dejes caer en tentación
y líbranos del mal.

Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder,
y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre.

Amen.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever.

Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Presider Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Presider says

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

A note about Spiritual Communion: The Book of Common Prayer reminds us that if one is unable to actually consume the consecrated bread and wine due to extreme sickness or disability, the desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion (p. 457). When being present at a celebration of the Eucharist is absolutely impossible, as it is now, this act of prayer and meditation can provide the means by which you can associate yourself with the Eucharistic Action and open yourself to God's grace and blessing. Please consider using this Act of Reception during Communion time.

Act of Reception

Deacon and People

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, and remembering particularly the people of the Church of St. Martin, I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving,
for creation and all the blessings of this life,

for the redemption of the world,
and for the means of grace and the hope of glory.
I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and,
since I cannot at this time receive communion,
I pray you to come into my heart.
I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind.
Let nothing separate me from you;
let me serve you in this life until, by your grace,
I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

After Communion, the Presider says

Let us pray.

Presider and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

AN EPIPHANY BLESSING

The Presider offers a blessing.

The Father, who created you, is with you; the Son, who redeemed you, is with you; the Spirit, who strengthens you, is with you; the Holy Three enfold you; and the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN Hymnal 593 “Lord, make us servants of your peace” (Dickinson College)

DISMISSAL

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We acknowledge the land on which we are gathered. For thousands of years, this land has been the home of Patwin people. Today, there are three federally-recognized Patwin tribes: Cachil Dehe Band of Wintun Indians of the Colusa Indian Community, Kletsel Dehe Wintun Nation, and Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation. The Patwin people have remained committed to the stewardship of this land over many centuries. It has been cherished and protected, as elders have instructed the young through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands.

ABBREVIATED ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE WEEK OF FEBRUARY 20, 2022

The full announcements are available at www.churchofstmartin.org

Zoom Coffee Hour—Invite, Welcome, and Connect for Lent

Join us on Sundays after the 10am service for Zoom coffee hour. Stick around to meet new people and catch up with neighbors, as well as learn about upcoming events and other formation opportunities. This Sunday, February 20, we'll be talking more about the Invite, Welcome, Connect tools we've been learning about, specifically about re-connecting as we transition into more in-person spaces. You won't want to miss this conversation!

TYGMOS Movie Night Tonight, Sunday February 20

On Sunday, February 20 at 5pm TYGMOS (our middle- and high-school youth group) will gather online for a movie night! The votes are tallied and we're watching The Prince of Egypt (1998). If you or your teen are not currently receiving emails about TYGMOS, email casey@churchofstmartin.org to get on the list—that's where you'll find the Zoom link!

Save the Date for our Mardi Gras party on Sunday, February 27!

Before the somber season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, we celebrate all that is lively and joyous in the world on (the Sunday before) Fat Tuesday! From 11:30am-12:30pm on Sunday, February 27, we'll gather on the Great Lawn to let the good times roll. We'll decorate and eat King Cake, create some collaborative art, and sing our last "alleluias" before we put them away for Lent. Bring along your favorite musical instruments and joyful noise makers, your singing voice, and your festive spirit! Families with kids may also want to decorate a wagon, stroller, or other wheels for When the Saints Go Marching In. Bring a friend or neighbor to join in the fun! Email Pastor Casey (casey@churchofstmartin.org) with questions.

Re-Connect with Spiritual Practices this Lent, beginning on Ash Wednesday

Lent begins with the observance of Ash Wednesday on March 2. Join us at 7am or 7pm for a worship service with the Imposition of Ashes. The morning service will be brief and solemn; the evening service will include Holy Eucharist. We will also be bringing back our Ash Wednesday Prayer Walk. Mark your calendars for 12 noon on March 2 or for after the 10am service on Sunday, March 6.

Gradual Return to In-Person Services

As we continue to respond to the ups and downs of the ongoing pandemic, we are following the pattern of reopening that served us well last year. This Sunday we are offering both an in-person 8am service and an online 10am service. Both services are celebrations of the Holy Eucharist; the 10am service will feature our choir. If you are joining us in person, please remember to wear a mask to protect your fellow parishioners and take a moment to sign in before you enter the church.

Assuming that COVID case numbers continue to drop in our area, we will take the next step in reopening on Sunday, February 27, by offering a hybrid (simultaneously in-person and online) 10am service. Keep checking our announcements and email for updates. Thank you to everyone for your patience during these difficult times!

We Need YOU to Pitch In

Remember that one thing that makes a return to in-person worship possible is having enough people willing to help out in various ministry positions—readers and ushers, especially, but also Coffee Hour volunteers and so on. Please consider giving of your time to these important ministries.

Two Discussion Groups during Lent: Save the Dates

Christian Formation at St. Martin's will offer two small group opportunities during Lent, one on Wednesday mornings and one on Wednesday evenings. The Living Well through Lent group, focusing on the theme of "letting go," will meet on Wednesdays from 10:30 to 11:45, starting on Ash Wednesday, March 2. The Wednesday evening group will organize its discussions around the book Love is the Way by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry and will run from 7 to 8:30pm, beginning on March 9. Both groups will meet on Zoom. Contact the office for more information or keep checking back in the announcements!

The Rector is In! (Or out, actually, depending on how you look at it)

Our rector is going to begin "outdoor office hours" on Monday afternoons during Lent, approximately from 4 to 5pm, beginning on Monday, March 7 (NOTE the change from Thursday). This will be a way to meet up with Pamela and other parishioners who stop in, without needing an appointment. See you there!

Saturday Meal Reps Needed

For many years, St. Martin's Parish Hall has hosted community meals three times a week, which are prepared by volunteers working with Davis Community Meals & Housing (DCMH). Currently, hot meals are prepared in the kitchen and boxed up "to go." We are in need of Saturday meal representatives who are willing to dedicate a couple of hours on one Saturday per month to greet and organize folks who come by to get their meal to go, oversee clean-up, and lock up afterwards. The Saturday commitment is from 10:45 am to 12:15 pm. Please reach out to Diana Glick (email in the church directory) if you have questions or think you might be interested.

"Every person...Every week...One item of food"

The Social Justice and Outreach Committee reminds us that our local food banks are in great need, and we continue to support them with our collection of non-perishable items. We deliver these items to STEAC, The UC Davis Pantry, and Dixon Family Services on a weekly rotating basis. You have options for where to bring your items: Janet Lane's front porch (address in church directory or contact church office for address)—you may leave items there any day and any time OR you can contact the church office to arrange an appointment to leave food items in the office OR bring items during the 8am in-person service. The food closets also need toilet paper and diapers. Thank you for your generosity!

Upcoming Meeting Dates

(All meetings on Zoom; contact communications@churchofstmartin.org for links.)

Vestry: Sunday, February 20 at 12noon

Buildings and Grounds: Friday, February 25 at 4:00pm

Caring Ministries: Monday, February 28 at 7:00pm

Virtual Office Hours: Monday-Friday 9:00 am to 12:00 pm.
