

EXTENDED ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE WEEK OF March 6, 2022

New and Noteworthy

Starting Sunflowers at the Ranch: Join us on Sunday, March 13, from 4 to 6 pm

Have you noticed how many people are sharing pictures of sunflowers in support of Ukraine? That got me to thinking—why not plant our own sunflower patch at the Ranch? If it grows well, it will be a beautiful reason to come out to the property and invite others. So that is one of the things we will start working on next weekend. But please drop by even if you don't want to work on this specific project and just want an orientation to the property or to do a little wandering on your own.

PLEASE NOTE the change of date (from Saturday to Sunday) and mark your calendars for some fellowship and dreaming time together from 4 to 6pm. Our time will include worship and fellowship outdoors in a casual, rustic environment; you can come for all or part of it and stay for as long as you like. You're also welcome to bring food and have an early picnic dinner. Just remember that you will need to bring your own chairs or picnic blankets and wear appropriate footwear and clothing. Looking forward to seeing you there! –Pamela+

Parish Garden and Work Day, Saturday, March 26, 8:30 – 12noon

Join us to get our grounds looking their best for Spring and for Easter. Buildings and Grounds is hosting a parish Garden and Work Day on the morning of Saturday, March 26. The two Scout troops that meet at St. Martin's will be joining us. Can you spare an hour or two to help out? We have some tools but would also appreciate people bringing gardening tools of their own to use. We will have light refreshments. Hope to see some of you there!

Formation and Fellowship Opportunities

Self-paced Prayer Walk TODAY, Sunday, March 6 from 11:30 – 1pm

This self-paced, guided tour of five prayer stations around our church grounds was created last year for Ash Wednesday when gathering indoors was impossible, even for worship. We are bringing it back this year because of the overwhelmingly positive response to it. The tour begins at the welcome station under the main awning in front of the sanctuary. Each station will include a reflection, activity, and optional listen-along podcast (bring your "device" and headphones if you want to listen to the recordings). Masks and social distancing are required.

Godly Play Second and Fourth Sundays in March on Zoom

Godly Play will meet with Diane and Diana on Sundays, March 13 and 27 from 9:15 – 9:45 on Zoom. A link will be sent to you via e-mail if you are on our list to receive Godly Play information. But if you need the link or more information, please reach out to Pastor Casey (casey@churchofstmartin.org).

Growing Faith, Food, and Community, A Conference of the Diocese of Northern California

Join us for a one-day gathering to explore and celebrate the use of church grounds for growing food, whether through community gardens, soup kitchens, beekeeping and more. The keynote speaker will be Brian Sellers-Petersen, author of Harvesting Abundance and consultant to the Presiding Bishop's Good News Garden Initiative.

The conference is being put on by the Diocese of Northern California and will be held at St. Martin's on Saturday April 2, 9:30 - 3:00pm. It will take place in-person only with limited space. Registration is $25. You can register here to attend. We hope to see many of you there!

Also, if you are interested in helping out with the conference at St. Martin's please contact the church office (info@churchofstmartin.org) or our rector, Pamela (pamela@churchofstmartin.org).

Discussion Group—Love is the Way Wednesday Evenings—Starting on March 9

On Wednesday evenings beginning March 9, a group will meet from 7 - 8:30pm on Zoom to discuss the book Love is the Way by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry. Here's some more information about the book and the author, from the publisher:

“Walk the path of love with one of the warmest, most beloved spiritual leaders of our time, and learn how to put faith into action...Bishop Michael Curry's life illustrates massive changes in our times. Much of the world met Bishop Curry when he delivered his sermon on the redemptive power of love at the royal wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle at Windsor Castle. Here, he expands on his message of hope in an inspirational road map for living the way of love, illuminated with moving lessons from his own life. Through the prism of his faith, ancestry, and personal journey, Love Is the Way shows us how America came this far and, more important, how to go a whole lot further. The way of love is essential for addressing the seemingly insurmountable challenges facing the world today: poverty, racism, selfishness, deep ideological divisions, competing claims to speak for God. This book will lead readers to discover the gifts they need in order to live the way of love: deep reservoirs of hope and resilience, simple wisdom, the discipline of nonviolence, and unshakable regard for human dignity.”

It would be great to know if you're planning to attend; please contact the office (info@churchofstmartin.org) or Helen Campbell (formation@churchofstmartin.org) to let us know.

Living Well through Lent Wednesday Morning Discussion Group

Christian Formation at St. Martin's is offering a Living Well through Lent discussion group on Wednesdays from 10:00 - 11:15 am. The group meets on Zoom and is focusing on the theme of “letting go.” For more information or to sign up, please contact the church office (info@churchofstmartin.org) or Helen Campbell (formation@churchofstmartin.org).

The Rector is In! (Or out, actually, depending on how you look at it)

Our rector, Pamela, is going to begin “outdoor office hours” on Monday afternoons during Lent, approximately from 4 to 5pm, beginning on Monday, March 7. This will be a way to meet up with Pamela and other parishioners who stop in, without needing an appointment. See you there!

Prayers for Ukraine

As we continue to follow the news of war in Eastern Europe, please remember to find trusted and reliable journalistic sources, and take care when sharing information online that contains graphic images or videos. Presiding Bishop Michael Curry and our diocesan Bishop Megan Traquair have shared messages of solidarity and hope. We offer this prayer:

Almighty God, Prince of Peace, we pray for our siblings in Ukraine who are under siege. We ask for your comfort and protection over them as they cower underground, weighing impossible decisions in the darkness. For those who choose to gather their belongings and their children and flee their homeland, we ask that they find refuge in the open arms of their neighbors around the world. For those who remain, to stand and defend, we ask for courage and perseverance in the long nights ahead. You call us all to turn our swords into plowshares and our spears into pruning hooks, to sow seeds of justice and freedom rather than destruction and despair. Change the hearts of those who roll their tanks through others' gardens; transform their lust for power into love of neighbor. Change our hearts, O God, whenever we turn away from the suffering of your beloved children. Embolden us to speak truth to power, renouncing violence and instead waging peace on earth. In the name of your Son, refugee and redeemer, we pray. Amen.

Ways to Give and Get More Connected

Saturday Meal Reps Needed

For many years, St. Martin's Parish Hall has hosted community meals three times a week, which are prepared by volunteers working with Davis Community Meals & Housing (DCMH). Currently, hot meals are prepared in the kitchen and boxed up "to go." We are in need of Saturday meal representatives who are willing to dedicate a couple of hours on one Saturday per month to greet and organize folks who come by to get their meal to go, oversee clean-up, and lock up afterwards.

The Saturday commitment is from 10:45 am to 12:15 pm. Please reach out to Diana Glick (email in the church directory) if you have questions or might want to participate in this worthy activity.

"Every person...Every week...One item of food"

The Social Justice and Outreach Committee reminds us that our local food banks are in great need, and we continue to support them with our collection of non-perishable items. We deliver these items to STEAC, The UC Davis Pantry, and Dixon Family Services on a weekly rotating basis. You have three options for where to bring your items at this time: Janet Lane's front porch (address in church directory or contact church office for address)—you may leave items there any day and any time OR you can contact the church office to arrange an appointment to leave food items in the office OR you can bring items during our in-person services on Sundays. The food closets also need toilet paper and diapers. Thank you for your generous donations!!

Grace Garden Volunteering Opportunity Grace Garden (located on Anderson Road at the United Methodist Church) grows vegetables and fruits to help feed those in our community who are facing food insecurity. You, too, are invited to join in the fun on Mondays, Thursdays, and Saturdays from 9:00am to 11:00am!
