Sunday, November 6, 2022 – Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost Día de los Muertos & Feast of All Saints The Holy Eucharist Rite I at 8:00am

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Please stand as you are able.

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen

COLLECT FOR PURITY AND GREAT COMMANDMENTS

The Presider says

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE GLORIA

All Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee,

we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy;

thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: Grant us grace so as to follow thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord who with thee and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

FIRST READING Please be seated for the readings.

Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: “As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever.”

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Let us read together Psalm 149.

- 1 Alleluia! Sing to God a new song; *
sing praise in the congregation of the faithful.
- 2 Let the people of Israel rejoice in their Maker; *
let the children of Zion be joyful in their Monarch.
- 3 Let them praise God’s Name in the dance; *
let them sing praise with timbrel and harp.
- 4 For God takes pleasure in the people * and adorns the poor with victory.
- 5 Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *
let them be joyful on their beds.
- 6 Let the praises of God be in their throat *
and a two-edged sword in their hand,
- 7 To wreak vengeance on the nations *
and punishment on the peoples;
- 8 To bind their rulers in chains *
and their nobles with links of iron;
- 9 To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *
this is glory for all God’s faithful people. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Please stand, as you are able.

Luke 6:20-31

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.”

“But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

“Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep.

“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

THE SERMON

Silence is kept after the sermon.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

The Presider says

Let us all renew our baptismal vows.

Presider Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Presider Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Presider Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Presider Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Presider Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

The Presider concludes the Renewal of Vows as follows

May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE The Leader and the People pray responsively.

Deacon Let us pray for the Church and the world.

Leader O God Most High, inspire the hearts and minds of all who lead us in our church, who encourage and remind us through word and sacrament how to lead faithful lives by your grace and mercy. We pray especially for Bishop Megan, for the Standing Committee, for the Board of Trustees, and for our deputation to General Convention.

(We pause, making space for prayer to be said, either silently or aloud.)

People O Lord of wisdom and hope
Enlighten the eyes of our hearts.

Leader O God Most High, in these times of trial and travail, strengthen us to arise each day with the inner peace of being called to the inheritance of your Kingdom. Open our thoughts and actions to humility and humanity, following the example of the saints who have gone before, and the saints who live among us now.

(We pause, making space for prayer to be said, either silently or aloud.)

People O Lord of wisdom and hope
Enlighten the eyes of our hearts.

Leader O God Most High, endow us, who abide with you in love, with the perseverance to guide local, national, and global leaders away from falsehoods and fraud toward the just reward of all who seek you. We pray especially for election officials and those who give of their time to serve the common good. May all citizens of this country take to heart our responsibilities as voters.

(We pause, making space for prayer to be said, either silently or aloud.)

People O Lord of wisdom and hope
Enlighten the eyes of our hearts.

Leader O God Most High, deliver from distress all in anguish from illness of body, mind, or spirit, and infuse those who give them care with gentle and peaceful hearts. We now join our hearts together to pray for all those in need, and especially for people on our parish prayer list.

(Clergy will share prayer requests and then invite those in the congregation to add their own petitions, either silently or aloud.)

People O Lord of wisdom and hope
Enlighten the eyes of our hearts.

Leader O God Most High, as you bless and wipe the tears of all who mourn, keep us all in the knowledge that death will be no more in the joy and gladness of all who live again, reaping their newness of life with songs of joy.

(Clergy will now read the necrology, which you can find on page 12; we will then pause, making space for prayer to be said, either silently or aloud.)

People O Lord of wisdom and hope
Enlighten the eyes of our hearts.

Leader O God Most High, we give thanks for this whole world, your greatest miracle. May we who inherit this earth be wise stewards of Creation and kind caretakers of all your creatures. Remembering that when our gifts are blessed they increase and become a blessing to others, we thank you for the uncountable miracles and blessings in our lives.

(We pause, making space for prayer to be said, either silently or aloud.)

People O Lord of wisdom and hope
Enlighten the eyes of our hearts.

Presider God of us all, saints and sinners together, set our hearts free from the prison of hate, the emptiness of self-importance, and the mindlessness of earthly privilege. May we each claim our divine endowment of trust, truth, grace and mercy as we strive to stand always with you. We ask this through Jesus, our Redeemer; in the Unity of the Holy Spirit; who together with You, are One God above all, through all, and in all, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PEACE

Please stand, as you are able.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

We greet one another in the name of the Lord. Please be sensitive to those who wish to maintain physical distance.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, CELEBRATIONS AND MILESTONES

All may join in praying.

Watch over your children O Lord, as their days increase: bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes all understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up unto the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

The Presider continues

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God; through Jesus Christ our Lord; who, in the multitude of thy saints, hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses, that we, rejoicing in their fellowship, may run with patience the race that is set before us; and, together with them, may receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

SANCTUS

Presider and People

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts: Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Please kneel or stand, as you are able.

The Presider continues

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ. And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies.

Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Presider

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

FRACTION ANTHEM

Presider Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

O LAMB OF GOD Presider and People

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

INVITATION AND DISTRIBUTION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.
The ministers receive the Sacrament and then deliver it to the people.

ABOUT RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

All are welcome at God's table, children included. Gluten-free Communion hosts are available; please ask. Wine is being served via intinction only; the priest will dip your host into the chalice of wine and then offer it to you. If you would prefer to receive bread only, you may simply say so. The customary response upon receiving Communion is "Amen." Crossing your arms over your chest indicates that you would like to receive a blessing instead of Communion.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

After Communion, the Presider says
Let us pray.

Presider and People

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us;
and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son,
the blessed company of all faithful people;
and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom.
And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

BLESSING The Priest blesses the people, saying

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

DISMISSAL

Presider Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We acknowledge the land on which we are gathered. For thousands of years, this land has been the home of Patwin people. Today, there are three federally-recognized Patwin tribes: Cachil Dehe Band of Wintun Indians of the Colusa Indian Community, Kletsel Dehe Wintun Nation, and Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation. The Patwin people have remained committed to the stewardship of this land over many centuries. It has been cherished and protected, as elders have instructed the young through generations. We are honored and grateful to be here today on their traditional lands.

Día de los Muertos Today, with a Special Coffee Hour

Today we celebrate Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead). We have both an indoor and outdoor ofrenda (an altar of remembrance of our loved ones who have departed). Join us after the 10:00am service for a special festive coffee hour with pan dulce and a piñata. Note we are also reading the Necrology (a list of our loved ones who have passed away in the past year) at both services today.

First Sunday 10am Service—All are welcome to join the Family Choir for a day!

Today is a first-Sunday service. First Sunday services are a bit more informal than other Sunday 10am services, with music and other features designed for all ages. The children's area up front has some special new books, including one in Spanish and English about Día de los Muertos. The Family Choir will sing a song in honor of the holiday. All ages and abilities welcome!

This Sunday's Stewardship Speaker and Returning Your Pledge

Today at both services, former Sr. Warden Bob Polkinghorn will share his thoughts on Stewardship during announcements. St. Martin's is supported entirely by the financial gifts of our members and friends. We are very grateful to those who provide regular financial support to our ministries. You may return your pledges to us by mailing or bringing your pledge to the church office, sending in your pledge to our confidential Stewardship email (stewardship@churchofstmartin.org), or bringing your pledge to church for our ingathering next Sunday, November 13, when we celebrate the Feast of St. Martin! Thank you one and all!

Thanksgiving Gift Card Project Benefits Local Families

As in past years, we will purchase and distribute grocery store gift cards to local Yolo County families so that they can purchase the food that they want and to serve it on their own time. Last year, we were able to provide $100 gift cards to 88 families and $25 gift cards to 32 UC Davis students. If you are able to give this year, please send a check to St. Martin's Episcopal Church ("Thanksgiving Project" in memo line) You may also use the green "GIVE" button on the St. Martin's website. The deadline for donations is next Sunday, November 13. For questions, talk to Social Justice and Outreach Committee members at their table after both Sunday church services. Thank you for participating in this program that has helped so many!

Spirituality in Nature Gathering on Saturday, November 12 at Forbes Ranch

Co-sponsored by our Christian Formation ministry and Care for God's Creation, St. Martin's is offering monthly Spirituality in Nature Gatherings (known as SINGs!). This month, we'll be exploring the theme of gratitude at Forbes Ranch on Saturday, November 12, from 11am to 1 pm. Bring a pack lunch and an open heart. There will be time to take a walk on a level path toward the beautiful coastal range, pick some pomegranates, and give thanks for the land that supports so many trees and other beings. And we'll have time together in community. If you are able to stay longer or come a little later, we will also be planting ten Valley Oaks that are going to be part of our rewilding effort on the land. Contact Ann Liu for more information or to volunteer to help with the planting. The address and directions to the Ranch are located on our website. For questions, contact Stan Forbes, Jim Schaal, or Rev. Pamela.

The Feast of St. Martin, Next Sunday, November 13

Next Sunday, November 13, we celebrate the feast of our patron saint, St. Martin of Tours. This is also our stewardship ingathering day, where we ask you to bring your 2023 pledges to church to submit them in person and have them blessed (if you have not done so already). Stay after the 10am service for a special coffee hour featuring French-themed foods and goose-shaped cookies. Why French food? Because St. Martin was from Tours, France. (Bien sur!) And why goose-shaped cookies? Well, come to coffee hour to find out!

New Sacred Ground Circle Starting in November

Sacred Ground is a discussion series on race, grounded in faith and developed by the Episcopal Church. Small groups use films and readings to walk through chapters of America's history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. The Rev. Ernie Lewis and Carole Hom will co-facilitate a new Sacred Ground Dialogue Circle that will meet in person on Sunday afternoons, starting in late November, and meet approximately every two weeks (with breaks for holidays) until the last session in May. Interested? Contact Ernie or Carole (contact info in church directory) or the office to help you connect (info@churchofstmartin.org).

Advent Wreath Making in Godly Play on November 27

Children in Godly Play will have an opportunity to make an Advent Wreath on November 27. We will do this during class time and then bring our creations into church to be blessed. Materials will be provided and we will plan for one wreath per family. If you think that your children or grandchildren will be attending on this day please let the office or Diane Bamforth know by November 21 so that we can plan to have enough materials. All parishioners are welcome to bring their own wreaths to church to be blessed at the end of the service.

Journeying the Way of Love: Advent Formation Opportunity beginning on November 27

All are welcome to join us on Sunday, November 27, after the 10 o'clock service to learn about our upcoming class on Journeying the Way of Love in Advent. We'll spend an hour together getting acquainted with the curriculum and learning about the seven spiritual practices in the Way of Love, what we mean when we talk about a Rule of Life, and how the scripture passages we associate with Advent can help us draw closer to God and one another. Come to this first gathering and then decide if you want to participate in the four Wednesday night sessions that will follow. Either way, go home with a special Advent calendar! To check out the Advent curriculum we will be using, you can find it here: <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/journeying-way-love/>.
