ABOUT RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

A note about Spiritual Communion: The Book of Common Prayer reminds us that if one is unable to actually consume the consecrated bread and wine due to extreme sickness or disability, the desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion (p. 457). When being present at a celebration of the Eucharistic is not possible, this act of prayer and meditation can provide the means by which you can associate yourself with the Eucharistic Action and open yourself to God’s grace and blessing. Please consider using this Act of Reception during Communion time.

Act of Reception: “In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, and remembering particularly the people of the Church of St. Martin, I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption of the world, and for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.”

LEVAS II 9 "On Jordan's banks I stand"

1. On — Jor-dan's storm-y banks I stand, — And cast a wish-ful eye;
2. All — o'er those wide-ex-tend-ed plains, — Shines one e-ter-nal day;
3. No — chill-ing winds or poi-s'nous breath — Can reach that health-ful shore;
4. When shall I reach that hap-py place — And be for-ev-er blest?

1. To Ca-naan's fair and hap-py land, Where — my pos-ses-sions lie.
2. There God the Son for-ev-er reigns, And — scat-ters night a-way.
3. Sick-ness and sor-row, pain and death, Are — felt and feared no more.
4. When shall I see my Fa-ther's face, And — in God's bos-om rest?

D.S. Oh, who will come and go with me? I am bound for the prom-ised land.

I am bound for the prom-ised land, — I am bound for the prom-ised land;

All Saints' Day November 1

Apostles, prophets, martyrs, and all the noble throng who wear the spotless raiment and raise the ceaseless song:
for them and those whose witness is only known to you—by walking in their footsteps
we give you praise anew.
